Research interests

I am interested in research that examines the Information system, Costing Account, and ERP system. My research examines the Shareholder Effects of ERP in an emerging market. In addition to the effects of information systems such as ERP on Tax evasion and the role of ERP on increased environmental disclosures. It also examines the stock market’s reaction to implementing the ERP cloud.

My current research interests include:

- Information systems
- Cost Accounting
- voluntary disclosures
- Corporate governance
- Sustainability Reporting
