

Bachelor's degree

Rules of Procedure of the Faculty of Specific Education

The first Door

College Departments, Degrees and Diplomas

Article (1):

The faculty consists of the following departments:

1. Department of Music Education.
2. Department of Art Education.
3. Home Economics Department.

Article (2):

The University of Assiut is granted at the request of the Council of the Faculty of Specific Education the following scientific degrees and diplomas:

First: Bachelor degree in Specific Education in one of the following specializations:

1. Music Education.
2. Art Education.
3. Home Economics.

Second: Special Diploma in Specific Education in one of the specialties specified in Article (15( of these Regulations.

Third: A Master's degree in Specific Education in one of the scientific majors in the College Departments in accordance with the provisions of Article (22( of these Regulations.

Fourth: The degree of Doctor of Philosophy in Specific Education in one of the scientific majors in the departments of the College in accordance with the provisions of Article (28( of these Regulations.

Section Two

Bachelor degree in Specific Education

Article (3)

The duration of the study to obtain a bachelor's degree in quality education is four years of university, including eight semesters during which the student will study the courses shown in the attached tables

Article (4)

In addition to the general conditions stipulated in the executive regulations of the law governing the organization of universities, the student must be enrolled in the college to obtain a bachelor's degree from one of the departments of the college (music education, art education, home economics(

a. Admission to the study to obtain a bachelor's degree in quality education from the Department of Home Economics is limited to students who have a high school scientific division without any other. Admission to study for a bachelor's degree in specific education from the Department of Art Education or Music Education Department for students with secondary education Scientific or literary division.

B. Students wishing to join the college pass personal tests and capacity tests.

C. The student shall be medically fit in a manner that proves his fitness to pursue the study and assume the responsibilities and tasks of the teaching profession.

Article (5)

The tables attached to this regulation show the courses distributed throughout the year of study and its classes, the number of theoretical and practical hours, the units assigned to each course, the grades of the work of the year, the distribution of grades for the final written examinations and the process and the number of exam hours for each academic course. Shall be determined by the competent sections councils

Article (6)

The College organizes practical training for the students of the third and fourth divisions according to the schedules of the study plan and based on what the department councils propose and approved by the college council. The training in schools affiliated to the Ministry of Education or others is one day per week during each of the two academic years, Not less than two weeks and conducted in the second half of the academic year for each of the two groups.

The field training of students in schools aims to prepare the teacher to carry out the professional jobs associated with the technical and administrative education required by the educational process, including the guidance, psychological guidance and care of the students in a behavioral and valuable manner. The implementation of the field training shall be carried out under the supervision of the faculty members and their assistants in the departments of each faculty in their respective fields.

The degree of the field training course for students is set at 100 degrees for the two semesters together and the student is granted a bachelor's degree only after passing the field training period successfully and the training supervisor contributes to the school or educational institution in which the field training is conducted. The supervisors of the schools supervise the training as an external supervisor and have the right to 20% (the degree of the work of the year( of the total degree of training. The internal supervisor of the college has the right to 80% of the degree (the applied exam( In training in accordance with Article 14 of these Regulations. The student's return will remain in the field training course even if it is successful in all other courses.

Article (7)

The students of the fourth year will prepare the bachelor's project and the departments of the different departments will be assigned its subject and will be included in the teaching hours for the fourth year students in each department as indicated in the schedules of the study plan attached to these regulations. The evaluation of the project's grades will be the specialization of the teaching staff in each department, , And add the score of the project (50 degrees( to the total number of grades of the fourth band and flat and denomination and calculated within the cumulative grades of the student and is not considered a recoil.

Article (8)

The College organizes a scientific trip for students of the fourth year during the half-year vacation for a week. The purpose of the visit is to visit the various sites and sites associated with the specialization of each department and enrich the applications required for their expertise.

Article (9)

The student is obliged to follow the lessons and participate in the practical lessons and practical exercises according to the system approved by the College Council not less than 75% of the lessons of each course individually. The College Council, at the request of the relevant department councils, to issue a decision to deny the student to apply for the exam in the courses Did not meet attendance. In this case, the application is considered a failure in the courses which prevented him from taking the exam. If he presents an excuse accepted by the College Council, he is considered to be absent for an acceptable excuse.

Article (10)

The grades of the work of the year shall be calculated on the basis of periodic examinations held at least twice for each course during the semester. The written examinations and the final course of the course shall be held at the end of the semester in which the course is taught.

Article (11)

Each course is assigned a total score of one or more of the written, practical or applied exams and the work of the year in the manner indicated in the tables attached to these regulations. The student is not considered successful if he receives less than 30% of the final exam.

Article (12)

Transfer the student from the restricted band to the higher division if he succeeded in all the courses or was a rapporteur in no more than two rapporteurs from his team or from the lower teams, and the student performs the exam in the course of failing with the students of the class to be taught the course or the final year students retiring in No more than two examiners who failed in the November exams at the beginning of the first semester of the next academic year. If they repeat their exams, they will be tested at the end of the semester in which their courses of study are taught in accordance with the provisions of the applicable academic regulations. If they repeat their repetition, they will be tested in the course of the November exams at the beginning of the first semester of the next academic year and so on until success in the courses of underdevelopment and without prejudice to the rules governing it.

Article (13)

If the tables attached to these regulations contain written, oral, practical or applied tests of the course, the student's assessment shall be based on the total number of examinations presented in each course. The student who is absent in the written examination is absent in the course, and he is not monitored for the practical examination grade at the end of the year. He may reserve the degree of the work of the year to monitor it within his grades if he moves to the higher division with backward materials.

Article (14)

The student's success in any of the courses or in the general assessment is estimated as one of the following: Excellent 85% or more of the total score is very good from 75% to less than 85% of the total score Good from 65% to less than 75% The overall grade is acceptable from 50% to less than 65% of the total grade. The student's failure in one of the courses is estimated by one of the following two estimates: Poor from 30% to less than 50% of the total grade is very poor Less than 30% .