

Studies on Certain Skin Affections among Ruminants

K. Fouad, N.A. Misk and M. Kassem

Abstract:

Certain cutaneous affections were detected among some ruminants. Their nature and symptoms together with the treatment of the lesions were detailed. Neoplasms, excoriat-ion, oedematous skin disease, dermatitis, tail necrosis, hyperkeratosis, ringworm lesions and alopecias were among the encountered clinical cases

Published In:

Assiut Veterinary Medical Journal , 11 , 22