

Ocular Diseases in Donkeys

N.A. Misk

Abstract:

The article reviews various ocular affections and treatment pertaining to donkeys, including: lacerations, ectropion, nasolacrimal duct obstruction, lacrimal sac histoplasmosis, conjunctivitis, corneal lacerations, keratitis, cataracts, lens luxation and subluxation, and ocular neoplasms. Illustrations are provided.

Published In:

Equine Practice, , Vol. 12, No. 4, , PP. 20-27