

Morphoanatomical and Radiographic Studies on the Tail in Some Domestic Animals

N.A. Misk, M.A. Seliem and M.S. Aziz.

Abstract:

The aim of the present work is to study some morphoanatomic and radiographic features of the tail in some domestic animals. The number of caudal vertebrae was stated in each animal. A 9cm length at the end of the tail was free from caudal vertebrae in bovine.

Published In:

Proc. of 3rd Scientific Congress on Diseases of Cattle, Assiut University, Dec. , ,