The quantum binary and thriplet distribution functions

N. A. Hussein, F. A. Mohammed, A. H. Ahmed and D. A. Eibrahim

Abstract:

The aim of the present work is to calculate the quantum binary and triplet distribution functions in term of the binary and triplet slater sums for plasma. The numerical calculation for electron gas at the classic limits are given. The comparative results between quantum and classical calculation are given.

Published In:

Bulletin of the faculty of science assiut university, Vol.32(1),