Abstract:

Research Summary The social councils of the Mongols of Al qabchak during the century (Eighth Hijri / fourteenth A.D) In light of the novels of "Ibn Batuta" The study sheds light on one of the social characteristics of Mongols of al qabchak, which is represented in their social councils in the light of the novels of the traveler "Ibn Batuta" as he passes through the areas of their influence. The study is conducted in all the details related to the councils of Mongols of al qabchak, and the external body of these councils, In addition to the internal manifestations as traditions, attendance, food and drinks on the other hand, whether in the upper, middle or lower classes. In this study, I used the analytical approach in the transfer of "Ibn Batuta's" novels about the social councils of Mongols of al qabchak in a literal manner. The analytic approach, the descriptive approach, and the critical approach were used to analyze, describe and critique "Ibn Batuta's" novels on the subject of the study. As for the problem of the study, it is possible to highlight the reasons for the convening of these types of councils, whether for political reasons or for cultural reasons or both? The study was divided into an introduction, a preface, and five main sections. In a preface I dealt with the definition of "Ibn Batuta" and then touched on his journey and its political, economic, social and cultural importance. Then I dealt with the first part of the study: "The definition of Mongols of al qabchak". The second section dealt with the "Social Councils of Uzbek Khan", while the third section entitled "social Councils of the khatons". The fourth section was entitled "social councils of the Princes", The fifth section dealt with "the oratory's social councils". The study concluded with a conclusion that included the results obtained, an explanatory map of the locality of Mongols of al qabchak, and an appendix to the rulers of Mongols of al qabchak, Finally proven sources and references.
