II. Organization of the 3-region lottery

The 3-region lottery is organized daily, including 2 to 3 draws. In each draw, 6 numbers are drawn in the Northern region, 5 numbers in the Central region, and 4 numbers in the Southern region. The drawn numbers will be recorded on the confirmation papers of lottery centers and broadcasted live on television and radio so that people can stay up-to-date on the results.

During the organization process, the 3-region lottery is monitored by functional agencies such as the Lottery Department, the Ministry of Finance, the Ministry of Industry and Trade. The results of the lottery are announced by authorized agencies and are transparently published on media platforms for public scrutiny.

III. The prize-winning mechanism of the 3-region lottery

The 3-region lottery offers a variety of prize levels, including the first prize, the second prize, the third prize, and the consolation prize. The first prize is the highest and is given to the player who has correctly guessed all 6 numbers in the Northern region, 5 numbers in the Central region, or 4 numbers in the Southern region. The second prize is awarded to players who have guessed 5 numbers in the Northern region, 4 numbers in the Central region, or 3 numbers in the Southern region. The third prize is given to those who have correctly guessed 4 numbers in the Northern region, 3 numbers in the Central region, or 2 numbers in the Southern region. The consolation prize is given to those who have correctly guessed 3 numbers in the Northern and Central regions, or 2 numbers in the Southern region.

In conclusion, the 3-region lottery is a popular numbers game in Vietnam, offering players a chance to win big prizes. With live broadcasting of the results, people can easily stay up-to-date on the game. The organization of the lottery is monitored by functional agencies to ensure fairness and transparency. The prize-winning mechanism offers a range of prize levels, giving players more chances to win.
