

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

Daily report file

On the initiative of the President of the Republic
About the Women's Breast Cancer Early Screening Initiative

From Saturday 11/9/2021 to Monday 11/10/2021

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

Breast self-examination report

Which took place at the Faculty of Nursing, Assiut University

Saturday, 9/11/2021

Within the national campaign (100 Million Healthy Women for Early Detection of Breast Cancer under the patronage of the President of the Republic), the College of Nursing was organized on Saturday 11/9/2021.

A session to conduct a breast examination for a number of faculty members, students and students of the college and their families, where the preparations for the session began at exactly eight thirty in the morning, under the supervision of Mrs. Campaign coordinator.

A team of faculty members was formed to perform the tasks of the session and breast examination as follows:

Prof. Dr. Amal Sayed (Professor, Department of Nursing Administration)
Responsible for Data Entry Initiative

Prof. Ghada Abdel Rahman (Professor at the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology for Breast Examination and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Safaa Rashad (Associate Professor, Department of Community Health for Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Saida Abdel Hamid Assistant Professor, Department elderly Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Awareness)

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

❖ A breast examination was conducted, and health awareness was given about breast cancer for (182) female college students (internship stage).

The breast examination session ended at 2:30 in the afternoon, when the students went to receive the vaccine

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

Breast self-examination report

Which took place at the Faculty of Nursing, Assiut University

Sunday 12/9/2021

Within the national campaign (100 million health for early detection of breast cancer for women under the patronage of the President of the Republic), the College of Nursing was organized on Sunday 12/9/2021

A session to conduct a breast examination for a number of faculty members, students and students of the college and their families, where the preparations for the session began at exactly eight thirty in the morning, under the supervision of Mrs. Campaign coordinator.

A team of faculty members was formed to perform the tasks of the session and breast examination as follows:

Prof. Dr. Amal Sayed (Professor, Department of Nursing Administration)
Responsible for Data Entry Initiative

Prof. Ghada Abdel Rahman (Professor at the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology for Breast Examination and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Safaa Rashad (Associate Professor, Department of Community Health for Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Saida Abdel Hamid Assistant Professor, Department elderly Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Awareness)

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

❖ A breast examination was conducted, and health awareness was given about breast cancer for (182) female college students (internship stage).

The breast examination session ended at 2:30 in the afternoon, when the students went to receive the vaccine

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

Breast self-examination report

Which took place at the Faculty of Nursing, Assiut University

Monday, 9/13/2021

Within the national campaign (100 Million Healthy Women for Early Detection of Breast Cancer under the patronage of the President of the Republic), the College of Nursing was organized on Monday 13/9/2021.

A session to conduct a breast examination for a number of faculty members, students and students of the college and their families, where the preparations for the session began at exactly eight thirty in the morning, under the supervision of Mrs. Campaign coordinator.

A team of faculty members was formed to perform the tasks of the session and breast examination as follows:

Prof. Dr. Amal Sayed (Professor, Department of Nursing Administration)
Responsible for Data Entry Initiative

Prof. Ghada Abdel Rahman (Professor at the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology for Breast Examination and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Safaa Rashad (Associate Professor, Department of Community Health for Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Saida Abdel Hamid Assistant Professor, Department elderly Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Awareness)

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

❖ A breast examination was conducted and a health awareness was given about breast cancer for (52) of the college students (internship stage).

The breast examination session ended at 2:30 in the afternoon, when the students went to receive the vaccine

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

Breast self-examination report

Which took place at the Faculty of Nursing, Assiut University

Tuesday, 9/14/2021

Within the national campaign (100 Million Health for Early Detection of Breast Cancer for Women under the patronage of the President of the Republic), the College of Nursing was organized on Tuesday 14/9/2021.

A session to conduct a breast examination for a number of faculty members, students and students of the college and their families, where the preparations for the session began at exactly eight thirty in the morning, under the supervision of Mrs. Campaign coordinator.

A team of faculty members was formed to perform the tasks of the session and breast examination as follows:

Prof. Dr. Amal Sayed (Professor, Department of Nursing Administration)
Responsible for Data Entry Initiative

Prof. Ghada Abdel Rahman (Professor at the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology for Breast Examination and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Safaa Rashad (Associate Professor, Department of Community Health for Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Saida Abdel Hamid Assistant Professor, Department elderly Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Awareness)

- ❖ A breast examination was conducted, and health awareness was given about breast cancer for (69) college students (internship stage).

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

The breast examination session ended at 2:30 in the afternoon, when the students went to receive the vaccine

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

Breast self-examination report

Which took place at the Faculty of Nursing, Assiut University

On Wednesday 15/9/2021

Within the national campaign (100 Million Health for Early Detection of Breast Cancer for Women under the patronage of the President of the Republic), the College of Nursing was organized on Wednesday 15/9/2021

A session to conduct a breast examination for a number of faculty members, students and students of the college and their families, where the preparations for the session began at exactly eight thirty in the morning, under the supervision of Mrs. Campaign coordinator.

A team of faculty members was formed to perform the tasks of the session and breast examination as follows:

Prof. Dr. Amal Sayed (Professor, Department of Nursing Administration)
Responsible for Data Entry Initiative

Prof. Ghada Abdel Rahman (Professor at the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology for Breast Examination and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Safaa Rashad (Associate Professor, Department of Community Health for Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Saida Abdel Hamid Assistant Professor, Department elderly Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Awareness)

❖ A breast examination was conducted, and health awareness was given about breast cancer for (76) college students (internship stage).

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

The breast examination session ended at 2:30 in the afternoon, when the students went to receive the vaccine

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

Breast self-examination report

Which took place at the Faculty of Nursing, Assiut University

Thursday, 9/16/2021

Within the national campaign (100 Million Health for Early Detection of Breast Cancer for Women under the patronage of the President of the Republic), the College of Nursing was organized on Thursday 16/9/2021

A session to conduct a breast examination for a number of faculty members, students and students of the college and their families, where the preparations for the session began at exactly eight thirty in the morning, under the supervision of Mrs. Campaign coordinator.

A team of faculty members was formed to perform the tasks of the session and breast examination as follows:

Prof. Dr. Amal Sayed (Professor, Department of Nursing Administration)
Responsible for Data Entry Initiative

Prof. Ghada Abdel Rahman (Professor at the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology for Breast Examination and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Safaa Rashad (Associate Professor, Department of Community Health for Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Saida Abdel Hamid Assistant Professor, Department elderly Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Awareness)

- ❖ A breast examination was conducted, and health awareness was given about breast cancer for (66) college students (internship stage).

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

The breast examination session ended at 2:30 in the afternoon, when the students went to receive the vaccine

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

Breast self-examination report

Which took place at the Faculty of Nursing, Assiut University

Saturday, September 18, 2021

Within the national campaign (100 Million Healthy Women for Early Detection of Breast Cancer under the patronage of the President of the Republic), the College of Nursing was organized on Saturday 18/9/2021.

A session to conduct a breast examination for a number of faculty members, students and students of the college and their families, where the preparations for the session began at exactly eight thirty in the morning, under the supervision of Mrs. Campaign coordinator.

A team of faculty members was formed to perform the tasks of the session and breast examination as follows:

Prof. Dr. Amal Sayed (Professor, Department of Nursing Administration)
Responsible for Data Entry Initiative

Prof. Ghada Abdel Rahman (Professor at the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology for Breast Examination and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Safaa Rashad (Associate Professor, Department of Community Health for Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Saida Abdel Hamid Assistant Professor, Department elderly Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Awareness)

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

❖ A breast examination was conducted and health awareness was given about breast cancer for (96) college students (internship stage).

The breast examination session ended at 2:30 in the afternoon, when the students went to receive the vaccine

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

Breast self-examination report

Which took place at the Faculty of Nursing, Assiut University

Sunday, 9/19/2021

Within the national campaign (100 million health for early detection of breast cancer for women under the patronage of the President of the Republic), the College of Nursing was organized on Sunday 19/9/2021

A session to conduct a breast examination for a number of faculty members, students and students of the college and their families, where the preparations for the session began at exactly eight thirty in the morning, under the supervision of Mrs. Campaign coordinator.

A team of faculty members was formed to perform the tasks of the session and breast examination as follows:

Prof. Dr. Amal Sayed (Professor, Department of Nursing Administration)
Responsible for Data Entry Initiative

Prof. Ghada Abdel Rahman (Professor at the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology for Breast Examination and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Safaa Rashad (Associate Professor, Department of Community Health for Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Saida Abdel Hamid Assistant Professor, Department elderly Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Awareness)

- ❖ A breast examination was conducted, and health awareness was given about breast cancer for (45) college students (internship stage).

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

The breast examination session ended at 2:30 in the afternoon, when the students went to receive the vaccine

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

Breast self-examination report

Which took place at the Faculty of Nursing, Assiut University

Monday, 9/20/2021

Within the national campaign (100 Million Healthy Women for Early Detection of Breast Cancer under the patronage of the President of the Republic), the College of Nursing was organized on Monday, 20/9/2021.

A session to conduct a breast examination for a number of faculty members, students and students of the college and their families, where the preparations for the session began at exactly eight thirty in the morning, under the supervision of Mrs. Campaign coordinator.

A team of faculty members was formed to perform the tasks of the session and breast examination as follows:

Prof. Dr. Amal Sayed (Professor, Department of Nursing Administration)
Responsible for Data Entry Initiative

Prof. Ghada Abdel Rahman (Professor at the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology for Breast Examination and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Safaa Rashad (Associate Professor, Department of Community Health for Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Saida Abdel Hamid Assistant Professor, Department elderly Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Awareness)

- ❖ A breast examination was conducted, and health awareness was given about breast cancer for (60) college students (internship stage).

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

The breast examination session ended at 2:30 in the afternoon, when the students went to receive the vaccine

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

Breast self-examination report

Which took place at the Faculty of Nursing, Assiut University

On Tuesday, 9/21/2021

Within the national campaign (100 million health for early detection of breast cancer for women under the patronage of the President of the Republic), the College of Nursing was organized on Tuesday, 21/9/2021.

A session to conduct a breast examination for a number of faculty members, students and students of the college and their families, where the preparations for the session began at exactly eight thirty in the morning, under the supervision of Mrs. Campaign coordinator.

A team of faculty members was formed to perform the tasks of the session and breast examination as follows:

Prof. Dr. Amal Sayed (Professor, Department of Nursing Administration)
Responsible for Data Entry Initiative

Prof. Ghada Abdel Rahman (Professor at the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology for Breast Examination and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Safaa Rashad (Associate Professor, Department of Community Health for Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Saida Abdel Hamid Assistant Professor, Department elderly Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Awareness)

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

❖ A breast examination was conducted, and health awareness was given about breast cancer for (58) college students (internship stage).

The breast examination session ended at 2:30 in the afternoon, when the students went to receive the vaccine

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

Breast self-examination report

Which took place at the Faculty of Nursing - Assiut University

On Wednesday, 9/22/2021

Within the national campaign (100 million health for early detection of breast cancer for women under the auspices of the President of the Republic), the College of Nursing was organized on Wednesday 22/9/2021

A session to conduct a breast examination for a number of faculty members, students and students of the college and their families, where the preparations for the session began at exactly eight thirty in the morning, under the supervision of Mrs. Campaign coordinator.

A team of faculty members was formed to perform the tasks of the session and breast examination as follows:

Prof. Dr. Amal Sayed (Professor, Department of Nursing Administration)
Responsible for Data Entry Initiative

Prof. Ghada Abdel Rahman (Professor at the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology for Breast Examination and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Safaa Rashad (Associate Professor, Department of Community Health for Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Saida Abdel Hamid Assistant Professor, Department elderly Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Awareness)

- ❖ A breast examination was conducted, and health awareness was given about breast cancer for (128) college students (internship stage).

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

The breast examination session ended at 2:30 in the afternoon, when the students went to receive the vaccine

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

Breast self-examination report

Which took place at the Faculty of Nursing - Assiut University

Thursday, September 23, 2021

Within the national campaign (100 Million Healthy Women for Early Detection of Breast Cancer under the patronage of the President of the Republic), the College of Nursing was organized on Thursday, 9/23/2021.

A session to conduct a breast examination for a number of faculty members, students and students of the college and their families, where the preparations for the session began at exactly eight thirty in the morning, under the supervision of Mrs. Campaign coordinator.

A team of faculty members was formed to perform the tasks of the session and breast examination as follows:

Prof. Dr. Amal Sayed (Professor, Department of Nursing Administration)
Responsible for Data Entry Initiative

Prof. Ghada Abdel Rahman (Professor at the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology for Breast Examination and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Safaa Rashad (Associate Professor, Department of Community Health for Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Saida Abdel Hamid Assistant Professor, Department elderly Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Awareness)

- ❖ A breast examination was conducted, and health awareness was given about breast cancer for (16) college students (internship stage).

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

The breast examination session ended at 2:30 in the afternoon, when the students went to receive the vaccine

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

Breast self-examination report

Which took place at the Faculty of Nursing - Assiut University

Sunday, 9/26/2021

Within the national campaign (100 million health for early detection of breast cancer for women under the auspices of the President of the Republic), the College of Nursing was organized on Sunday 26/9/2021

A session to conduct a breast examination for a number of faculty members, students and students of the college and their families, where the preparations for the session began at exactly eight thirty in the morning, under the supervision of Mrs. Campaign coordinator.

A team of faculty members was formed to perform the tasks of the session and breast examination as follows:

Prof. Dr. Amal Sayed (Professor, Department of Nursing Administration)
Responsible for Data Entry Initiative

Prof. Ghada Abdel Rahman (Professor at the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology for Breast Examination and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Safaa Rashad (Associate Professor, Department of Community Health for Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Saida Abdel Hamid Assistant Professor, Department elderly Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Awareness)

- ❖ A breast examination was conducted, and health awareness was given about breast cancer for (25) college students (internship stage).

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

The breast examination session ended at 2:30 in the afternoon, when the students went to receive the vaccine

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

Breast self-examination report

Which took place at the Faculty of Nursing - Assiut University

On Tuesday 9/27/2021

As part of the national campaign (100 million healthy people for early detection of breast cancer for women under the patronage of the President of the Republic), the College of Nursing was organized on Monday, 27/9/2021.

A session to conduct a breast examination for a number of faculty members, students and students of the college and their families, where the preparations for the session began at exactly eight thirty in the morning, under the supervision of Mrs. Campaign coordinator.

A team of faculty members was formed to perform the tasks of the session and breast examination as follows:

Prof. Dr. Amal Sayed (Professor, Department of Nursing Administration)
Responsible for Data Entry Initiative

Prof. Ghada Abdel Rahman (Professor at the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology for Breast Examination and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Safaa Rashad (Associate Professor, Department of Community Health for Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Saida Abdel Hamid Assistant Professor, Department elderly Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Awareness)

- ❖ A breast examination was conducted, and health awareness was given about breast cancer for (31) college students (internship stage).

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

The breast examination session ended at 2:30 in the afternoon, when the students went to receive the vaccine

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

Breast self-examination report

Which took place at the Faculty of Nursing - Assiut University

Tuesday, September 28, 2021

As part of the national campaign (100 million health for early detection of breast cancer for women under the patronage of the President of the Republic), the College of Nursing was organized on 27/9/2021.

A session to conduct a breast examination for a number of faculty members, students and students of the college and their families, where the preparations for the session began at exactly eight thirty in the morning, under the supervision of Mrs. Campaign coordinator.

A team of faculty members was formed to perform the tasks of the session and breast examination as follows:

Prof. Dr. Amal Sayed (Professor, Department of Nursing Administration)
Responsible for Data Entry Initiative

Prof. Ghada Abdel Rahman (Professor at the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology for Breast Examination and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Safaa Rashad (Associate Professor, Department of Community Health for Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Saida Abdel Hamid Assistant Professor, Department elderly Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Awareness)

- ❖ A breast examination was conducted, and health awareness was given about breast cancer for (31) college students (internship stage).

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

The breast examination session ended at 2:30 in the afternoon, when the students went to receive the vaccine

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

Combined breast self-examination report

Which takes place at the Faculty of Nursing - Assiut University

From Saturday 11/9/2021 to Monday 28/9/2021

Within the national campaign (100 million health for early detection of breast cancer for women under the auspices of the President of the Republic), the College of Nursing was organized.

Breast examination sessions for a number of faculty members, male and female students and their families, where preparations for the sessions began at exactly eight thirty in the morning, under the supervision of Mrs. Campaign coordinator.

A team of faculty members was formed to perform the tasks of sessions and breast examination as follows:

Prof. Dr. Amal Sayed (Professor, Department of Nursing Administration)
Responsible for Data Entry Initiative

Prof. Ghada Abdel Rahman (Professor at the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology for Breast Examination and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Safaa Rashad (Associate Professor, Department of Community Health for Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Saida Abdel Hamid (Assistant Professor, Department elderly Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Awareness)

- ❖ A breast examination was conducted and health awareness was given about breast cancer to a number of (921) cases during this period

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

- ❖ Breast examination sessions are completed every day at four in the afternoon.

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

Breast self-examination report

Which took place at the Faculty of Nursing - Assiut University

On Tuesday 5/10/2021

Within the national campaign (100 million health for early detection of breast cancer for women under the patronage of the President of the Republic), the College of Nursing was organized on Tuesday 5/10/2021.

A session to conduct a breast examination for a number of faculty members, students and students of the college and their families, where the preparations for the session began at exactly eight thirty in the morning, under the supervision of Mrs. Campaign coordinator.

A team of faculty members was formed to perform the tasks of the session and breast examination as follows:

Prof. Dr. Amal Sayed (Professor, Department of Nursing Administration)
Responsible for Data Entry Initiative

Prof. Ghada Abdel Rahman (Professor at the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology for Breast Examination and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Safaa Rashad (Associate Professor, Department of Community Health for Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Saida Abdel Hamid Assistant Professor, Department elderly Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Awareness)

- ❖ A breast examination was conducted, and health awareness was given about breast cancer for (16) college students (internship stage).

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

The breast examination session ended at 2:30 in the afternoon, when the students went to receive the vaccine

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

Breast self-examination report

Which took place at the Faculty of Nursing - Assiut University

On Tuesday 5/10/2021

Within the national campaign (100 million health for early detection of breast cancer for women under the patronage of the President of the Republic), the College of Nursing was organized on Tuesday 5/10/2021.

A session to conduct a breast examination for a number of faculty members, students and students of the college and their families, where the preparations for the session began at exactly eight thirty in the morning, under the supervision of Mrs. Campaign coordinator.

A team of faculty members was formed to perform the tasks of the session and breast examination as follows:

Prof. Dr. Amal Sayed (Professor, Department of Nursing Administration)
Responsible for Data Entry Initiative

Prof. Ghada Abdel Rahman (Professor at the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology for Breast Examination and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Safaa Rashad (Associate Professor, Department of Community Health for Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Saida Abdel Hamid Assistant Professor, Department elderly Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Awareness)

- ❖ A breast examination was conducted, and health awareness was given about breast cancer for (16) college students (internship stage).

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

The breast examination session ended at 2:30 in the afternoon, when the students went to receive the vaccine

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

Breast self-examination report

Which took place at the Faculty of Nursing - Assiut University

Sunday 10/10/2021

Within the national campaign (100 million health for early detection of breast cancer for women under the patronage of the President of the Republic), the College of Nursing was organized on Sunday 10/10/2021.

A session to conduct a breast examination for a number of faculty members, students and students of the college and their families, where the preparations for the session began at exactly eight thirty in the morning, under the supervision of Mrs. Campaign coordinator.

A team of faculty members was formed to perform the tasks of the session and breast examination as follows:

Prof. Dr. Amal Sayed (Professor, Department of Nursing Administration)
Responsible for Data Entry Initiative

Prof. Ghada Abdel Rahman (Professor at the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology for Breast Examination and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Safaa Rashad (Associate Professor, Department of Community Health for Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Saida Abdel Hamid Assistant Professor, Department elderly Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Awareness)

- ❖ A breast examination was conducted, and health awareness was given about breast cancer for (12) college students (internship stage).

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

The breast examination session ended at 2:30 in the afternoon, when the students went to receive the vaccine

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

Breast self-examination report

Which took place at the Faculty of Nursing - Assiut University

Monday, October 11, 2021

Within the national campaign (100 Million Healthy Women for Early Detection of Breast Cancer under the patronage of the President of the Republic), the College of Nursing was organized on Monday, 10/11/2021.

A session to conduct a breast examination for a number of faculty members, students and students of the college and their families, where the preparations for the session began at exactly eight thirty in the morning, under the supervision of Mrs. Campaign coordinator.

A team of faculty members was formed to perform the tasks of the session and breast examination as follows:

Prof. Dr. Amal Sayed (Professor, Department of Nursing Administration)
Responsible for Data Entry Initiative

Prof. Ghada Abdel Rahman (Professor at the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology for Breast Examination and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Safaa Rashad (Associate Professor, Department of Community Health for Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Saida Abdel Hamid Assistant Professor, Department elderly Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Awareness)

- ❖ A breast examination was conducted, and health awareness was given about breast cancer for (41) college students (internship stage).

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

The breast examination session ended at 2:30 in the afternoon, when the students went to receive the vaccine

College accredited by the National Commission

Assiut University

To ensure the quality of education and accreditation

---

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development

---

Combined breast self-examination report

Which takes place at the Faculty of Nursing - Assiut University

From Saturday 11/9/2021 to Monday 11/10/2021

Within the national campaign (100 million health for early detection of breast cancer for women under the auspices of the President of the Republic), the College of Nursing was organized.

Breast examination sessions for a number of faculty members, male and female students and their families, where preparations for the sessions began at exactly eight thirty in the morning, under the supervision of Mrs. Campaign coordinator.

A team of faculty members was formed to perform the tasks of sessions and breast examination as follows:

Prof. Amal Sayed (Professor, Department of Nursing Administration) Responsible for Data Entry Initiative

Prof. Ghada Abdel Rahman (Professor at the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology for Breast Examination and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Safaa Rashad (Associate Professor, Department of Community Health for Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Health Awareness)

Dr.. Saida Abdel Hamid (Assistant Professor, Department elderly Breast Screening and Breast Cancer Awareness)

- ❖ A breast examination was carried out and health awareness was given about breast cancer for a number of (1304) cases during this period
- ❖ Breast examination sessions are completed every day at four in the afternoon.